

BARATON COLLEGE

Program Continuous Professional Development activity

EMERGING ISSUES IN FOOD ANIMAL SCIENCE

June 25th 2018

Session	Topic
0800 - 0830	Registration of Participants
0830 - 0900	Introduction and climate setting
0900 - 1000	Challenges and opportunities in aquaculture
1000 - 1030	Tea Break
1030 - 1130	Sericulture production and opportunities in Sericulture
1130 - 1230	The transmission of aflatoxin B1 metabolites in milk and the danger to human health
1230 - 1330	Discussions
1330 - 1400	Lunch
1400 -1500	The prevalence of aflatoxin B1 in maize based animal feeds in the North Rift
1500 - 1600	Emerging issues in food animal welfare
1600 - 1630	Discussion
1630 - 1700	Tea Break

June 25th 2018

Session	Topic
0800 - 0830	Registration of Participants
0830 - 0930	Extension approach to field practice
0930 - 1030	Methods in large animal restraint
1030 - 1100	Tea Break
1100 - 1200	Use of passive surveillance data in large animal disease prevention and control
1200 - 1230	Discussions
1230 - 1330	Lunch
1330 - 1430	Paperless data collection for food animal disease monitoring: Use of the Epicollect tool
1430 -1530	Way forward
1530 - 1600	Discussion
1600 - 1630	Closing remarks
1630 - 1700	Tea Break